

volofin closes Air France 777-300ER financing

Alternative lender volofin Capital Management has closed the financing for one Boeing 777-300ER on lease to Air France on behalf of DAOL Asset Management.

volofin says the deal represents its inaugural transaction with the Korean asset manager.

DOAL's managing director Woo-Song Jung describes volofin as "the perfect partner for this transaction", citing its "reputation as a reliable lender" and "extensive experience in aviation finance".

He adds: "We are excited to join forces with volofin and contribute our asset management expertise to ensure the successful execution of this loan financing."
